In Studio City, the Farmers Market is operated by both the Chamber of Commerce and our Residents Association.

You can try reaching out to Esther Walker (no relation) at the Chamber:

Dear BID Consortium,

The Arts District community is looking for a new farmers market operator. For those of you who operate farmers markets, would you be able to share the contact information for your market operator? Also, the Arts District is interested in learning about what type of financial arrangement your BID has with your respective market operator. I would appreciate any information you could send my way.

Best Regards,
